

Scores: area-weighted accuracy and κ on held-out polygons, 237 for seven classes and 183 for four, so the two lines in a box are not directly comparable. The seven-class maps are the current ones.
Elevation stays out of the stack on purpose: in raw metres it would swamp the 8-bit bands. Candidates are prompts for a person to accept or reject, not results.